Master of Social Work Program

Graduate professional education for social work places heavy intellectual and emotional demands upon students. The School of Social Work is interested in admitting students who are mature and have the capacity for graduate study and the commitment to a professional career of serious ethical responsibility.

The following questions suggest the kinds of information that may be most helpful to the Admissions Committee in making a decision:

Openness to learning with capacity to change Intellectual capacity Integrity Emotional maturity/stability Creativity in problem solving Ability to express ideas orally Ability to communicate in writing Ability to accept constructive feedback Interpersonal skills Sensitivity to & capacity for accepting differences in Race, Class, Culture, Lifestyles & Ideas Summary Evaluation: I strongly recommend this applicant and believe that he/she has the capability to perform at a superior level. I recommend this applicant for admission and believe that his/her performance should be comparable to that of most graduate students. I believe the applicant's qualifications are marginal, but the applicant has potential and would benefit from study in the program. I do not recommend this applicant for admission to the graduate program in social work. Please attach a letter of support, if possible.
